

Reading Civic Theatre is hosting its first ever Reader's Theater "Fright Night" on Saturday, November 1, 2025. This will be an evening of "chilling tales" penned by author and storyteller Charles J. Adams III. Auditions for this event will be held on Saturday, April 19th from 1:00-3:00. Look for the sign-up genius on the AUDITION Tab for audition slots on our website. Contact Barry Ciabattone at barry1@ptd.net or Jeannette DeAngelo at jmbway@aol.com for specific questions.

Auditionees will be given a story to read at the audition. During the reading we are looking for eye-to-eye audience effectiveness, "pregnant pauses," and occasional lapses for dramatic effect. Ten tales will be presented therefore we are looking to cast five readers. Charlie Adams will be on the audition panel and will provide direction if needed, and will be involved in the casting process . Rehearsals will be limited therefore individual preparation will be required. IF SELECTED, YOU WILL HAVE A COPY OF YOUR STORY TO "LIVE WITH" FROM AUDITION TO REHEARSAL/SHOWTIME. The evening will consist of dramatic readings of 4–5-minute stories of ghosts, legends, and intrigue.
