DIRECTOR'S NOTE

A Note from the Director of Into the Woods

What is the meaning of this incredible show, "Into the Woods?" The show explores the consequences of our actions and the complexities of relationships, emphasizing that wishes and desires, while powerful, can lead to unforeseen outcomes and that true fulfillment lies in community and facing challenges together. Every day life is going into the woods. We never know what each day will bring. Each day is a journey with ups and downs. Our decisions guide the ups and downs..not just for ourselves but for all those around us. Think about one of the lines that the Witch sings... "Careful the words you say, Children will listen... Careful the things you do, Children will see."

As the director of this amazing show I want to make sure that you, the audience, will be able to embrace all the different messages of this story. As you journey with this unbelievable talented cast...walk with each character. Learn from them. Learn from their decisions and take their life lessons and use them for your own life. This show gives us the ability to place ourselves into a fairy tale, but add the reality of life to the tales. We all know that life is not a fairy tale...sometimes we are lost and scared...sometimes with are happy and joyful...sometimes we are confused and worried...but no matter what we have the ability and the power to create our own Happy Ever After!

I want to thank my awesome team, my incredibly talented cast, all my tech, stage hands, and painters and all of you, the audience, for letting me share my vision of this incredible musical journey. I hope it fills your hearts with warmth, hope, and life!

Thanks,
Andrew J. Angstadt
Director/Vice President of RCT
